

Be on Guard against Identity Theft and Tax Scams

Identity theft, tax refund fraud, and similar tax scams continue to target taxpayers in Vermont. Taxpayers have reported emails and phone calls from people posing as employees of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Vermont Department of Taxes. Some scammers are clever enough to pose as their victims' tax preparers to obtain private information. A common ploy scammers use is to falsely claim taxes are owed and demand immediate payment using threats and bullying. Scammers often target the elderly using these tactics.

How to protect yourself from becoming a victim

- Never give out personal information unless you are sure of the identity of the person requesting it.
- If you suspect that an email or phone call is fraudulent, do not engage in conversation. Contact the Department at 802-828-2865 or 1-866-828-2865 (toll-free) to verify an email or phone call.

How to report fraud

- Report suspected fraud immediately to the Vermont Department of Taxes and the IRS. Information about how to report fraud is available on the Department website at www.bit.ly/idtheftfraud.
- Suspected fraud also should be reported to the Vermont Attorney General's Consumer Assistance Program at 1-800-649-2424 (toll-free).

- You earned or received more than $100 in Vermont income,
- OR

Visit our website for more information.

Due Date

The 2017 Vermont Income Tax Return must be filed by April 17, 2018.

Timely Filing

Tax returns mailed through the U.S. Post Office are considered to be submitted on time if we receive them at the Department within three business days after the due date. Electronic filings transmitted on the due date are on time if the Department receives them by midnight of the due date. If you bring the return to the Department, you must deliver it on or before the due date to be on time.

Late Filing Penalty and Interest after the April Due Date

You are allowed to file a Vermont income tax return up to 60 days after April 17, 2018, even if you have not filed an extension of time to file. However, if you file the return on the 61st day after the due date or later, the Department will assess a $50 late file penalty. Late payment penalty and interest accrue after the due date.

Filing an Extension for the Vermont Income Tax Return

To receive a six-month extension of time to file your 2017 Income Tax Return, file Form IN-151, Application for Extension of Time to File Form IN-111, on or before the due date. An extension only allows additional time to file your income tax return. It does not extend the due date for your tax payment. Interest and penalty accrue on any tax due from April 18 to the date the Department receives your payment of tax. Extensions can be filed online at www.myVTax.vermont.gov.

Due dates: Extension requests must be filed by April 17, 2018.

Extended returns must be filed by Oct. 15, 2018.

Late Filing Penalty and Interest after the Extended Due Date

If you have filed an extension but do not file by the Oct. 15, 2018, extended due date, we will charge a $50 late file penalty. Late payment penalty and interest accrue after the April due date. NOTE: The late filing penalty applies even if you have a refund or no tax is due. If any tax is due, late payment penalty and interest charges also apply.

Incomplete Forms

If information necessary to support a credit or benefit is missing, your filing may be processed but the credit denied. This may result in a bill or reduced refund. You will have an opportunity to supply the information. In some instances, your tax forms may be returned to you. The credit or benefit cannot be processed until the Department receives the missing document(s) or information.

Forms That Cannot Be Processed

If your filing is not acceptable for processing, the Department may return your paper forms to you and you must submit them again. The date you resubmit the forms becomes the filing date of your return. The Department may also transfer your filing information onto acceptable forms. We may assess a $25 processing fee to partially cover the cost of transferring the information. Examples of unacceptable filings include the following: forms marked “draft” or “do not file,” forms not pre-approved by the Department, photocopies of forms, reduced or enlarged forms, faxed forms, forms not written in blue or black ink, or forms generated from different sources.

Homestead Declaration

Under Vermont law, every Vermont resident whose property meets the definition of a “homestead” must file a Homestead Declaration. A homestead is the principal dwelling and parcel of land surrounding the dwelling. It is your responsibility as the property owner to claim the property as a homestead if you meet, or expect to meet, the following requirements: 1) you are a Vermont resident, and 2) you own and occupy a homestead as your domicile as of April 1, 2018. NOTE: If you meet these requirements, except that your homestead is leased to a tenant on April 1, 2018, you may still claim it as a homestead if it is not leased for more than 182 days in the calendar year. For definitions of “domicile,” “resident,” and “nonresident,” see our website.

Due date: The Homestead Declaration must be filed by April 17, 2018.

Use Whole Dollars

Round entries to the nearest whole dollar. The cents are preprinted with zeroes.

Use Only Blue or Black Ink on Paper Forms

If you are completing a paper form, use only blue or black ink. Please print legibly. If the Department cannot read your forms, we may send them back to you. Then, you must resubmit properly completed, legible returns. See “Forms That Cannot Be Processed” below for more information.

Frequently Asked Questions

I received a request for more information. Did I do something wrong?

We may ask you to supply additional information to explain items on your Vermont income tax return. A request for more information does not necessarily mean that you filed improperly or that you have been selected for an audit. This type of request is a routine part of processing. It is important that you respond promptly with the requested information. Your return cannot be processed until the Department receives the information. You can submit the requested information at www.myVTax.vermont.gov.

Can my refund be taken to pay another debt?

Your income tax refund will be taken to pay a bill that you or your spouse/civil union partner owe to the Vermont Department of Taxes and/or other government agencies such as the Internal Revenue Service, Office of Child Support, Department of Corrections, Vermont courts, student loan agencies, Vermont state colleges, and tax agencies of other states. This is known as an "offset." We will notify you if your refund is used as an offset to pay outstanding debt.

Am I responsible for a tax debt owed by my spouse/civil union partner?

If you file a joint return with your spouse/civil union partner and believe tax debt owed by your spouse/civil union partner may reduce your portion of the refund, you may file an "injured spouse" claim. Visit www.bit.ly/injuredspouse for more information.

To make an injured spouse claim, please send the following four documents before you file your return:

1. A letter with details of your claim
2. Copy of federal Form 8379 (if you filed one with the IRS)
3. Copy of federal Schedules C and SE
4. Form 1099G for unemployment

Mail to: ATTN: Injured Spouse Unit
Vermont Department of Taxes
PO Box 1645
Montpelier, VT 05601-1645

I cannot pay my tax debt due to financial difficulties. What can I do?

If you cannot pay your entire Vermont income tax due, file your return on time and pay as much as you can. Then immediately write to the Department to apply for a payment plan. Send your request separately to:

ATTN: Compliance
Vermont Department of Taxes
PO Box 429
Montpelier, VT 05601-0429

Do not include your written request with your return.

We may ask you for financial information to determine the appropriate payment plan. Without a payment plan, unpaid income tax will result in collection action which may include the imposition of liens, court action, wage garnishment, bank levies, revocation of your business and/or professional license(s), imposition of a bond on your authority to do business, and the assignment of your debt to a private collection agency.

How do I claim a refund on my Vermont withholding or estimated tax payments?

You must file a Vermont Income Tax Return to claim a refund of Vermont withholding or estimated tax payments. You have up to three years from the due date of the return, including extensions, to file a claim for overpayment of tax due.

How do I correct a mistake or add information to my Vermont Income Tax Return?

You are required to file an amended Vermont return within 60 days of the following: 1) you become aware of a change to your Vermont income; 2) you file an amended return with the IRS; or 3) you receive a notice of change from the IRS. A late filing penalty will be assessed if the amended Vermont return is not filed within the 60 days. Check the “AMENDED” box on Form IN-111, Section 1, when filing an amended return for the applicable tax year.

NOTE: If you filed a Property Tax Adjustment Claim or Renter Rebate Claim, you must also amend your income on Schedule HI-144, Household Income, which you should have submitted with your claim.

When a seller does not charge the buyer Vermont Sales Tax on an item taxable in Vermont, the buyer must pay Vermont Use Tax. Nontaxable items such as food and clothing are excluded. Taxable items sold over the internet, by mail-order, by phone, or bought out-of-state and used in Vermont generally qualify. Use tax applies whether you are resident or nonresident. The use tax rate is the same as the sales tax rate: 6%.

If you didn't keep records of qualifying purchases, Vermont offers an option for estimating them in Part 1. If you did keep records, you should use Part 2. The total for any purchases that cost over $1,000 each needs to be reported on line 3a.

Please note: Act 73 of 2017 requires vendors to report certain transactions on which no sales tax was paid to the Department of Taxes. Included in these reports is buyer information which will be used in compliance efforts.

Note: Businesses must report use tax on Form SUT-451, Sales and Use Tax Return, or on Form SU-452, Use Tax Return. Individuals may also use Form SU-452 or use this worksheet. Do not include purchases already reported on those forms on this worksheet.

NOTE: If you owe taxes or a debt to another state agency, all or part of the refund may be taken to pay the bill.

Section 9 Amount You Owe

Line 35 If Line 30 is more than Line 31h, subtract Line 31h from Line 30 and enter the result.

Line 36 Interest and Penalty on Underpayment of or Failure to Make Estimated Tax Payments Paying underpayment charges at the time of filing may reduce the amount that will be billed later. Use Worksheet IN-152 or IN-152A, available on our website, to calculate the charges. The paper worksheets can be obtained by calling 802-828-2515. If you have a refund, the underpayment, interest, and penalty will be deducted. Estimated tax payments must either be: 1) equal to 100% of last year’s tax liability OR 2) 90% of this year’s tax liability. If tax liability due, less withholding, is less than $500, you will not be subject to penalty or interest charges. In order to avoid underpayment of estimated tax, see instructions on Form IN-114, Individual Income Estimated Tax Payment Voucher.

Line 37 Total Add Lines 35 and 36. Enter the amount. This is the amount you owe. Electronic payment options available at www.myvtax.vermont.gov:

- ACH debit (no fee)
- Credit card (3% service fee applies)

You may also pay by check or money order payable to the Vermont Department of Taxes

For information on payment plans, see “Financial Difficulties” in the General Instructions section.
